Georgian Chamber Players

Sunday, October 23
3:00 pm, Sanctuary
Tickets at the door: $20

The renowned Georgian Chamber Players return to Trinity's sanctuary this season for two concerts featuring chamber music of the highest caliber. In the opening concert, Christopher Rex (ASO Principal Cello), Reid Harris (ASO Principal Viola), David Coucheron (ASO Concertmaster), acclaimed violinist Amy Moretti, and distinguished pianist Elizabeth Pridgeon will present works of Rachmaninoff, Arensky and Taneyev in a program entitled "Music Under the Tsars."

Fall Music Festival

Sunday, November 20
11:00 am, Sanctuary
Mozart: Requiem, K. 626 (1791)

Make plans now to attend a musical highlight of Trinity's 2011-12 season. Mozart's towering and enduring uncompleted masterwork will be presented by the Chancel Choir, a cast of stellar soloists, and members of the Atlanta Symphony under the direction of Norman Mackenzie. Don't miss the first opportunity since 2000 to hear this beloved classic in the context of a Trinity worship service.

Collectors' Salon I

Sunday, November 20
4:00 pm

Gail and Clark Goodwin will share their very extensive collection of vintage and antique ethnic folk textiles. They were acquired during the couple's travels through many parts of the world. Gail describes it as comprising primarily of authentic, traditional pieces which were made for individual use, not for sale. Many of the pieces are dowry or funeral pieces or were made to be worn by babies or during festivals. Places of origin include India, Uzbekistan, Burma, Scandinavia, China, Indonesia, Africa, and North, Central, and South America.

Christmas ... Unwrapped

Sunday, December 18
9:45 am, Dobbs Chapel

The holiday play by Michelle R. Davis will be presented by members of The Trinity Players. This creative allegory unwraps the true meaning of the season — it's not about all the gifts, but about God's gift to mankind.

Congregational Carol Sing

Sunday, December 18
7:00 pm, Williams Hall

Come and enjoy an evening of holiday singing and merriment! Join Norman Mackenzie in his now-famous rendition of "The Twelve Days of Christmas," along with other Christmas favorites.

Georgian Chamber Players

Sunday, January 29
3:00 pm, Sanctuary
Tickets at the door: $20

In their second concert of the season at Trinity, the Georgian Chamber Players will highlight the music of Vienna, featuring works of Schubert, Beethoven and Brahms. Internationally acclaimed pianist Julie Coucheron (David's sister) and a guest violinist join the ensemble for this concert.

13th Annual Young People's Concert

Sunday, February 12
12:15 pm, Dobbs Chapel

Come and enjoy the many talents of the budding pianists, violinists, dancers, and singers among us. Trinity's youth, ages 8 to 18, will perform in this 45-minute concert. A reception follows.

The Crucible

February 23-25
Dobbs Chapel

The Trinity Players return under the direction of the Alliance Theater's Patrick McCole to present Arthur Miller's timeless classic "The Crucible," a play based on the events that took place in Salem, Massachusetts in 1692. An ever popular drama, it is as relevant today as when it was written. Watch your Trinity Times and the Trinity website for more information.

Harp Recital by Elisabeth Remy Johnson

Tuesday, February 28
7:30 pm, Dobbs Chapel
Free Admission (donations accepted)

Trinity is fortunate to welcome back one of the country's superlative harpists, Elisabeth Remy Johnson, ASO Principal Harp, for an evening concert featuring a full array of harp music spanning from the Baroque period to the present. The acoustics in Dobbs Chapel present a unique opportunity to experience the full range of musical color of this splendid instrument. Come and enjoy this winter evening treat.

Spring Music Festival

Sunday, March 18
11:00 am, Sanctuary
Aaron Copland: In the Beginning

Come and experience a fascinating and colorful musical re-envisioning of the Genesis creation story, featuring Trinity's Chancel Choir and soloist Katherine Murray, mezzo-soprano, all under the direction of Norman Mackenzie. Other short choral works of Copland and his longtime colleague Leonard Bernstein will be featured in what promises to be a unique and unforgettable worship experience.

Collectors' Salon II

Sunday, March 18
4:00 pm

We will be visiting the studio of nationally acclaimed artist Carolyn Carr to experience her work and her personal collection.

Atlanta Guitar Trio

Sunday, April 22
3:00 pm, Dobbs Chapel
Suggested donation: $20

Scott Plato and Bill Hearn return to Trinity along with Adam Craighead as members of the Atlanta Guitar Trio. This group performs music from different time periods, incorporating not only classical guitar, but mandolin and theorbo as well. (Theorbo is an unusual stringed instrument that needs to be seen as well as heard!) This concert will feature Spanish and Russian works, a Vivaldi concerto for guitars and theorbo, and more. Dobbs Chapel has proved to be a perfect performing space for these beautiful instruments.
