WELCOME to worship!

Our opening song is Lift Every Voice and Sing, which was first written as a poem by James Weldon Johnson. Soon after, it was set to music and became the official song of the NAACP. It's a cherished song of the Civil Rights movement and often referred to as the Black National Anthem. On this Martin Luther King, Jr. weekend, we give thanks for the way music can create a vision for the world, and we especially give thanks for all those bold enough to make that vision a reality.

Registry
By Andrea Cohen

They asked for what they’d need: one cup and one plate, one day whose stunt double would be night, and two miner’s lights, for when each was lost to the other.
THIS WEEK @ TRINITY

- There is no Coffee & Connections class today. However, all the other Adult Church School classes are meeting this morning in the B building.

- Thursday, January 24th, 4:45pm
Join the Trinity group for dinner and a show! Atlanta Shakespeare Tavern’s performance of Love’s Labour’s Lost. Email Sarah Wikle at swikle@trinityatlanta.org to make a reservation.

- Sunday, January 27th, 7:30pm
Join us for a special screening of the movie, ANGST, in the Loft. Raising awareness around anxiety

For more events and announcements visit:  www.trinityatlanta.org/bulletins or use the QR code below.

Go out into the world with JOY!

Jesus Changes Water to Wine by Ann Lukesh