5TH SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME
FEBRUARY 10, 2019   11:00 AM WORSHIP
TRINITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
5TH SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME
February 10, 2019 | 11:00 am Worship

Welcome to all who are worshipping with us.
We believe worship is the heart of our life together.
As we enter a holy space and time this morning, please silence all electronic devices. The opening voluntary is the call to silent meditation and preparation for worship.

OPENING VOLUNTARY  Flor Peeters
Aria

*CALL TO WORSHIP
One:  We gather together to open our eyes,
All:  that we may discover the beauty surrounding us, and embrace the joy within us.
One:  We gather together to open our ears,
All:  that we may hear the sounds of brokenness around us, and respond with compassion.
One:  We gather together to learn the ways of humility,
All:  that we may walk the earth with kindness, and look to the future with hope.

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN #15  FLOR PEETERS
Aria

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE
Arise, your light is come! The Spirit’s call obey; show forth the glory of your God, which shines on you today.
(stanza 1 of hymn #744)

CONCERNS OF THE PEOPLE
Please sign and pass the Friendship Register.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptismal Covenant and Profession of Faith
Thanksgiving of the Water
One:  The Lord be with you.
All:  And also with you.
One:  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All:  It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Baptism

With joy and thanksgiving we welcome you into Christ’s church; for we are all one in Christ. We promise to love, encourage, and support you, to share the good news of the gospel with you, and to help you know and follow Christ.

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE
O waly waly
O loving God, unto thy care we give again this child of thine, baptized and blessed with faithful prayer and sealed with love’s victorious sign.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

When we confess our sins we confess a paradox. On the one hand we confess our personal sins. We confess that we sin individually and personally by clinging to those things that are not God. On the other hand, we also confess that we live in a sinful world and cannot extricate ourselves from it. Together these two realities constitute a paradox, a deadly trap from which we cannot release ourselves. We are dependent on a Redeemer who can do for us what we cannot do for ourselves.

One:  The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.
All:  As we receive the light and love of God, may the Spirit guide us in new paths of service. Amen.
One: The Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

LITANY OF PARTING
For grades 1 & 2 as they leave for worship enrichment
Congregation: May God be with you there.
Children: May God be with you here.

SERMON  Fishy Business  Richard Floyd

*HYMN OF AFFIRMATION #721  PESCADOR DE HOMBRES
Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore
(stanza 1: cantor; stanzas 2-4: all)

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD’S PRAYER
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

GIVING OF OFFERINGS

OFFERTORY  He Comes to Us  Jane Marshall
He comes to us as One unknown, without a name, as of old, by the lakeside He came, to those men who knew Him not. He speaks to us, He speaks the same word: “follow thou me!” and sets us to the tasks which He has to fulfill for our time. He commands. And to those who obey Him, whether they be wise or simple, He will reveal Himself in the toils, the conflicts, the sufferings which they shall pass through in His fellowship, and as an ineffable mystery, they shall learn in their own experience who He is.

*DOXOLOGY #606  OLD HUNDREDTH

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

*CLOSING HYMN #757  Today We Are All Called to be Disciples

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

*CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

CONCLUDING VOLUNTARY  Charles-Marie Widor
Final from Symphony VI, op. 42

As our time of worship comes to an end, our time of service begins; we depart to be the church in the world.

The composer of this morning’s Offertory, Jane Marshall (b. 1924) is a prolific American church musician, educator, organist and hymn writer. She was a longtime member of the Sacred Music graduate faculty at Perkins School of Theology of SMU. The text is by renowned theologian, physician, philosopher and musician Albert Schweitzer (1875-1965).

This morning’s Concluding Voluntary is the final movement of the Sixth Organ Symphony of Parisian organist and composer Charles-Marie Widor (1844-1937). Widor followed César Franck as Professor of Organ at the famed Paris Conservatoire, and was appointed organist at the Church of Saint-Sulpice in 1870 at age 26. He wrote 10 organ symphonies, works of vast scope and color.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WORSHIP CREATIVELY

CHILDREN’S SUNDAY
Sunday, February 24
9:00 & 11:00 am worship
Children's Sunday is a special day when children lead the congregation in worship at both services. As children know and experience God in ways that can often surprise and challenge adults, their leadership in the choir (11:00 am only), liturgy, and sermon will expand our understanding of God’s love for us as children and enrich the worshiping life of Trinity. If your child(ren) would like to participate, please register online at “MY Trinity.”
If you have questions or would like more information, contact Elizabeth Davis, 404-495-8423, or edavis@trinityatlanta.org. Registration deadline is February 11.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
ELDER CLASS OF 2022

JIM BALLOUN
(JYouth Elder, One-Year Term)
Jim Balloun has been a member of Trinity for more than 30 years, served as an elder twice previously, and chaired the Finance Committee. He is married to Julie (formerly Williams Lanier). Jim has two children, Mark and Jill, and four grandchildren. Julie has two children and six grandchildren.

DOUG BENN
Doug Benn joined Trinity in 1984 with his wife, Mickey. Their two daughters, Kelsey and Madeline, grew up at Trinity, and Kelsey was in the inaugural class of babies when Trinity Early Learning Center first opened in 1986. Doug has served on the Trinity Session two prior terms. He served as Treasurer for 12 years in the 1990s-2000s and in that role established the Trinity Education Committee, and was the chairman for two years. He has recently returned to Atlanta after a 9-year stint living and working in California as the CFO of The Cheesecake Factory. Doug looks forward to becoming more involved in Trinity again.

SHIRLEY DAVIS
Shirley Davis has been a member of Trinity for two years. Mission is very important to Shirley; she is a board member and money management coach at Buckhead Christian Ministry and a tutor at Agape Youth and Family Center. Since joining Trinity, Shirley has also participated in the Cuba mission trip, Circle 5, Pastors’ Aid Committee, the Memorial Reception Committee, and Meals on Wheels. Shirley and her husband Michael, also an ordained elder, have a son, Kevin, in law school at the University of Georgia and a daughter, Lauren, who works at Columbia Medical Center in New York.

SHELBY HOLIHAN
(Youth Elder, One-Year Term)
Shelby Holihan is a junior at Walton High School and is active in the drama program and several nonprofits in her community. She is the daughter of Brian and Glynnis Holihan and the sister of Gigi Holihan. Shelby was baptized at Trinity in 2002 and has been a part of church school, choir, and youth group ever since. Trinity has been a significant part of Shelby’s life, especially since joining the youth group in 6th grade.

STEVE KARASICK
Steve Karasick and his wife Britney joined Trinity in 2003. They have two boys, Brent (11) and Josh (8), who were both baptized at Trinity and are active in children’s ministries and youth sports. Steve currently serves on the YFM committee, and together Steve and Britney have taught worship enrichment, children’s Sunday school and ROAD trip over the past five years. Steve works as the leader of a urology medical practice, and together with his boys, is active in Trinity’s Cub Scout Pack 212.

AMY KRAUSE
Amy Krause is a retired school administrator who currently works part-time advising schools with their improvement efforts and is an Adjunct Professor for Berry College’s Leadership Program. She has been a member of Trinity for 21 years and has served in the nursery, taught Sunday School to grades K-5 and upon occasion, high school. Over the years, Amy has participated in Trinity Serves and AGAPE, and is now active on the Wedding Committee and enjoys a Chapter 3 Women’s Group. She and her late husband, Marc Krause, have three daughters, Emily Walls (Benjamin), Kristen Roller (Blake), and Kendall. All three are current active members.

LASLEY GOBER
Lasley Gober joined Trinity in the 1980s with her husband Jim, a Trinity Elder. Their three children—Geoff, Linley, and Zack—grew up at Trinity, participated in service and sports programs, and served as acolytes. Lasley worked in television news gathering with Cox Broadcasting in the 1970s, after a couple of miserable first jobs. In 1995, she earned an MFA in Fiction Writing and went on to teach high school English at Westminster for twenty years, retiring in 2014. Education remains her passion. At Trinity, Lasley volunteered with the Secret Santa Workshop in the 1980s, wrote newsletters for AGAPE, served on the Adult Education Committee, and taught several church school classes. She and Jim have seven grandchildren.
RICHARD POWERS
Richard Powers has been a Trinity member for ten years. He and his wife, Grace (a lifelong Trinity member), were married in Dobbs Chapel. He currently serves on the Children and Family Ministries (CFM) committee and is a past chair. He has also served on the Board of Trinity Early Learning Center. Richard is originally from Kentucky and loves Georgia Tech football and all things bourbon. Richard is a graduate of Georgia Tech and the Chief Operating Officer at Strados Labs where he is developing medical devices to manage respiratory health. Richard and Grace have two children, Max (9) and Kinsley (7), who enjoy Sundays at Trinity and many wonderful CFM activities.

SARAH SHOUP
Sarah Shoup has been a member of Trinity Presbyterian for two years. Currently, she consults as a Communications Specialist at Chick-fil-A. She enjoys volunteering with City of Refuge and participating with Trinity's Young Adult ministry. A Georgia native, but an Atlanta transplant, she has lived in Atlanta for almost six years where she transferred from Savannah to finish her degree at Georgia State University in Spanish and International Business. She lives in East Atlanta Village with her three-year-old dog, Finley.

ESTHER STOKES
Esther Stokes is a residential landscape designer who joined Trinity in 1984 with her husband, Jim. She serves on Trinity’s Property Committee, has served on Session twice previously, was clerk in 2008-09, subsequently served on the Personnel Committee, and co-chaired the annual Commitment Campaign in 2017. She currently participates in the Justice Advocacy and Public Policy Committee and the Flower Guild. She and Jim have two adult daughters, Jessica and Zibby.

CRAIG PENDERGRAST
Craig Pendergrast and his wife Terri have been Trinity members for 12 years. They have two grown children, Andrew and Claire. Craig has previously served on the Session in the Class of 2013. He has been active on Mission Council and coordinated Trinity's Bolton-Hollowell Outreach Project (BHOP) to expand Trinity's engagement with the residents of the area between Bolton Road and Hollowell Parkway in northwest Atlanta where many Agape families live. He has also helped coordinate Adult Sunday School series on the subjects of charity and affordable housing. Before joining Trinity, Craig and Terri were members of Covenant Presbyterian Church where Craig served as a trustee. He is a partner in the Taylor, English law firm where his practice focuses on environmental law and real estate litigation.
