TRINITY SUNDAY
JUNE 16, 2019 ∙ 10:00 AM WORSHIP
WORSHIP
Welcome to all who are worshipping with us.
We believe worship is the heart of our life together.

As we enter a holy space and time this morning, please silence all electronic devices. The opening voluntary is the call to silent meditation and preparation for worship.

OPENING VOLUNTARY
Felix Mendelssohn
Introduction to Sonata II

*CALL TO WORSHIP
One:  Come, bless the Lord with me!
All:   Let us sing God's praise together for our lives are in God's hands.
One:   Come, let us worship God together!

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN #15
LASST UNS ERFREUEN
All Creatures of Our God and King

CALL TO CONFESSION

The prayer of confession is one of the most uncomfortable moments during our worship service. It is uncomfortable because it is a time of real confession in which we come to God in all of our failures. It requires vulnerability, authenticity, and personal reflection. Although confession can be difficult, it can also be healing. This is why we confess as a community and follow with the assurance that we are forgiven in Christ Jesus.

One:  Merciful God,
All:   We confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have failed to love in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone.

Silent confession

One:  God of grace,
All:   Set us free from a past that we cannot change; open to us a future in which we can be changed. Grant us peace and set us free to serve you in the world as agents of your reconciling love in Jesus Christ. Amen.

*Those who are able, please stand.
ASSURANCE OF PARDON

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE #425   TAMA NGAKAU MARIE
(Congregation will sing stanzas 1 and 2)

CONCERNS OF THE PEOPLE
Please sign and pass the Friendship Register.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST READING
One: The Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING
One: The Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON
The Calm Room   Pam Driesell

*HYMN OF AFFIRMATION   DICKINSON COLLEGE
Lord, make us servants of your peace: where there is hate, may we sow love; where there is hurt, may we forgive; where there is strife, may we make one.

Where all is doubt, may we sow faith; where all is gloom, may we sow hope; where all is night, may we sow light; where all is tears, may we sow joy.

Jesus, our Lord, may we not seek to be consoled, but to console, nor look to understanding hearts, but look for hearts to understand.

May we not look for love's return, but seek to love unselfishly, for in our giving we receive, and in forgiving are forgiven.

Dying, we live, and are reborn through death's dark night to endless day; Lord, make us servants of your peace, to wake at last in heaven's light.

Canon and creed appeared in the church's history as...Spirit-given reminders of what sort of community the church must be if it is indeed to be church; thus alienation from the mutual import of canon and creed may be occasioned by, and in turn occasion, alienation from the church's reason for existence. If we cannot say what it means for the affairs of the church that we have these particular Scriptures, or what convictions center and delimit the life of the church, or how our Scripture and our convictions work together, how do we make an identifiable community?

–Robert W. Jenson on the importance of the creeds and the church's affirmations of faith.
PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

GIVING OF OFFERINGS

OFFERTORY  All Hail, Adored Trinity  Leo Sowerby

All hail, adored Trinity. All hail, eternal Unity. O God the Father, God the Son, and God the Spirit, ever one. Behold, O Lord, this festal day we pour to thee our thankful lay, for all thy gifts of priceless worth, the saving health of all the earth. Three persons praise we ever more, and thee th’eternal one adore. In thy sure mercy ever kind, may we our true protection find. O Trinity, O Unity, be present as we worship thee. And to the angels’ songs in light, our pray’rs and praises now unite. Amen.
