AND THE WORD BECAME FLESH

AND LIVED AMONG US
Advent is a season of waiting, but as we prepare for the coming Messiah, we wonder together—what things can’t wait? What demands our immediate attention? What requires our work and preparation? What is it that God can’t wait for? Is it our praise, reconciliation, and proclamation? Is it the end of suffering, isolation, and fear? This Advent, we invite you to join us in imagining, prioritizing, and preparing. As we wait, what can’t?

In the ancient world, various peoples lit fires to mark the turning of the light into winter’s season and to pray for the return of the light. The church has Christianized that practice in the lighting of the Advent wreath. To us, these candles are signs of the growing light of Christ who is coming again into the darkness of our world.

4th Sunday of Advent
December 22, 2019 11:00 am Worship

Welcome to all who are worshipping with us. We believe worship is the heart of our life together.

As we enter a holy space and time this morning, please silence all electronic devices. The opening voluntary is the call to silent meditation and preparation for worship.

OPENING VOLUNTARY
Johann Sebastian Bach
In Dulci Jubilo

CALL TO WORSHIP AND LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLE

One: I will wait for the DMV. I will wait for the right moment. I will wait for the fire to grow. I will wait for the popcorn to pop. I will wait for political reform. I will wait for the light to turn green. I will wait to leave a message at the beep. I will wait for my kids to come home. I will wait for the paint to dry. I will wait for the right words to say. I will wait for Christmas to arrive.

All: We will wait for a lot of things, but we will not wait for love.

One: The world needs love. We need love. So today we light the candle of love to remind us to spread love wherever we go.

All: May we be courageous enough to love our neighbors as ourselves.

* PROCESIONAL HYMN #88
VENI EMMANUEL
O Come, O Come Emmanuel
(stanzas 1, 2, 6, 7)

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

One: Your light is drawing near.

All: Yet too often we shroud your light with our indifference.
When we turn a blind eye to suffering, forgive us.
When we are silent in the face of injustice, forgive us.
When we choose comfort over compassion, forgive us.
When we wait for what cannot wait, forgive us.

*Those who are able, please stand.
moment of silence
for examination of conscience and personal prayers of confession

One: You enter our broken world and make a home among us.
All: Illumine the shadows of our lives with your light,
and open our hearts to receive your grace.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

* CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE  waiting
While we are waiting, come; while we are waiting, come;
Jesus, our Lord, Emmanuel, while we are waiting, come.
(may be found as stanza 1 of hymn #92)

CONCERNS OF THE PEOPLE
Please sign and pass the Friendship Register.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING  1 Corinthians 11:27-29;
15:35; 42-44
One: The Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM  Wexford Carol  arr. Cynthia Dobrinski
(Westminster Ringers)

SECOND SCRIPTURE READING  John 1:1-5, 14
One: The Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON  George Stroup
What Can't Wait: A Material Christmas
*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH
One: What is the nature of Advent hope?
All: Advent hope is a hope for the transformation of this world, not a hope for escape from it. It is the hope of a new creation, a new heaven, and a new earth, in which God is rightly worshiped, human beings are truly loving, and a just peace reigns on earth.
We believe this hope was born in the Christ child. And so we not only commit to God the needs of the world in our prayers, we also pray that God will awaken us to participate in this hope by being instruments of God’s love and peace here and now. Amen.

* CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE  VALET WILL ICH DIR GEBEN
Love caused your incarnation, love brought you down to me; your thirst for my salvation procured my liberty. O love beyond all telling, that led you to embrace in love all loves excelling our lost and fallen race.
(may be found as stanza 2 of hymn #104)

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD’S PRAYER
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

GIVING OF OFFERINGS

OFFERTORY  Paul Tschesnokoff
Salvation is Created
Salvation is created, O Lord, God almighty; we praise thee above, O Lord, holy God.

*DOXOLOGY #606  OLD HUNDREDTH

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION
As our time of worship comes to an end, our time of service begins; we depart to be the church in the world.

JOY OFFERING: GOD IS WITH US.

The Christmas Joy Offering reflects that God is with us, through the generous gifts that support church leaders among us, retired, present and future, who have pointed us to God.

50% of your gifts make it possible for students to learn and grow in faith at Presbyterian-related schools and colleges equipping communities of color.

50% of your gifts assists current and retired church workers and their families with critical financial needs.

Please look for the Christmas Joy Offering envelopes in your pews and give generously.

GIVE GENEROUSLY

YEAR-END CONTRIBUTIONS
We are grateful for the generous gifts made to Trinity that help us fulfill our mission of Making God’s Love Visible. Below are guidelines and information you may find helpful for year-end giving:

- Cash and check contributions can be mailed, placed in the plate at any service, or hand-delivered to the church reception or finance offices.
- A contribution must be received or postmarked by December 31, 2019, for it to be considered a 2019 tax deduction. Please note that the church offices are closed on Tuesday, December 31.
- Stock transfers must be received in the church’s account by December 30, 2019. It is important to initiate the transfer early enough to allow for any year-end delay in transfers being completed. Your stock gift does not come to us with your name attached. We do not know who the donor is unless you tell us. To obtain transfer information and notify the church of your gift, please contact: Alfreda Whitlock at 404-495-8441 or awhitlock@trinityatlanta.org.
